Cause of

Action:

Self-abuse of controlled substances and alcohol

Order: The Nove

The November 21, 2001 emergency suspension imposed on Respondent's licenses to practice as a physician/surgeon and to prescribe and administer controlled substances was terminated. Respondent's licenses were placed on probation for five years with conditions and restrictions. Respondent was also ordered to pay a $500 fine.

Date: March 4, 2002

RADWIN, Martin Ira, MD

West Valley City, Utah

Amended

Order:

The restriction that Respondent shall restrict his medical practice to University of Utah, Mount Ogden Medical Clinic was changed to reflect that Respondent shall restrict his medical practice to Granger Medical Clinic and Pioneer Valley Hospital, both located in West Valley City, Utah. If Respondent desires to change his medical practice from the above-identified locations, he will be required to submit a revised practice plan to the Division and the Physicians Licensing Board and have it approved prior to commencing any new medical practice.

Date: January 11, 2002

RIDDLE, Brian T., MD

Provo, Utah

Cause of

Action:

Respondent acknowledges that in treating some patients he has demonstrated a lack of certain social and other skills that may impact his ability to practice medicine and he would benefit from additional continuing medical education. Respondent also acknowledges that in June 1996 he failed to insist that the consulting surgeon perform an immediate c-section take place with an obstetrical patient, which delay may have resulted in the poor outcome that followed.

Order: Respondent's licenses to practice medicine and to prescribe and administer controlled substances were revoked with a stay of enforcement on the revocation. Said licenses were placed on probation for five years with conditions and restrictions.

Date: February 1, 2002

SELLERS, Terrell Lee, MD

Orem, Utah

Cause of

Action: Respondent admits on six occasions since October 2001 he has uttered false prescriptions for controlled substances containing hydrocodone. Respondent used the name of another physician as the prescriber and the name of various family members as the patient with the intent to obtain the drugs for his own use and abuse.

Order: Respondent's licenses to practice as a physician/surgeon and to prescribe and administer controlled substances were revoked with a stay of enforcement on the revocation. Said licenses were placed on probation for five years with conditions and restrictions. Respondent was also ordered to pay a $2,000 fine.

Date: March 5, 2002

STODDARD, Larry D., MD

Layton, Utah

Cause of

Action: Respondent violated his probation, entered in a prior Division Order, when

Respondent issued prescriptions for controlled substances without a license and he falsely represented that he had a current DEA registration number.

Order: Respondent's license to prescribe and administer controlled substances will remain revoked. Respondent's license to practice medicine shall remain on probation with conditions and restrictions.

Date: March 14, 2002

TURNER, Bryan W., MD

Draper, Utah

Reinstatement

Order: The probation on Respondent's license to practice as a physician/surgeon was terminated and said license was reinstated with full privileges.

Date: March 18, 2002

Supplemental

Order: One probationary condition was added with respect to Respondent taking a narcotic blocker.

Date: February 25, 2002

DENTISTS - continued

JESSEN, Frank Zane Ogden, Utah

Cause of

Action: Respondent failed to maintain records of controlled substances received and > used in his dental practice and records relating to controlled substances prescribed to patients. Respondent also prescribed controlled substances for conditions he is not licensed to treat.

Order: Respondent's licenses to practice as a dentist and to prescribe and administer controlled substances were revoked with a stay of enforcement on the revocation. Said licenses were placed on probation for three years with conditions and restrictions. Respondent's license to prescribe and administer controlled substances is restricted to Schedules IV and V only. Respondent was also ordered to pay a $2,000 fine within 60 days from the date of the Order.

Date: January 9, 2002

Cause of

Action: Respondent violated probationary conditions by treating his daughter for symptoms of dehydration and headache and administering Fentanyl, a Schedule II controlled substance. Respondent also requested a staff person and his business partner to conceal the fact that he had administered the Schedule II controlled substance.

Order: Respondent's license to prescribe and administer controlled substances was revoked. Respondent may not reapply for this license for a period of three years. Respondent was also fined an additional $2,500 payable within 30 days from the date of the Order. The remaining probationary conditions identified in the January 9, 2002 Order remain in effect. NOTE: Dr Jessen's Class IV permit on his dental license was changed to a Class II permit due to the fact that Dr. Jessen does not have a controlled substance license. A Class IV permit requires a current controlled substance license.
